

BOW PROFILE

Profile Date: March 26, 2008

Inspected by: DaVid Gustavo Pineda

Bow Maker: Robert Reichel

Maker's information: Reichel worked in Markneukirchen, Germany circa 1875, died in 1918. Specialist in the making of double bass bows. Assisted and succeeded by two sons, Max robert and Walter, both died in 1931. (Source: Universal Dictionary of violin & Bow Makers by W. Henley, 1973.Ed.)

Wood Type:Pernambuco

Color: Brownish-Red/Dark

Length Over All Wood (LOA-Wood): 27 inches Weight: 141.4 grams.

Balance Point: 8 3/8 inches

Lap/Winding: Silver

Head and Tip Plate Setting: Bone

Talon/Frog Setting: German Silver

Stick Cut: Round

Tuning: Well defined

Camber Style: Round

Hinge Placement:8 1/2 inches

Ferrule Width: 18 mm

Hair Load: 330 count

Value Determination: US$ 2,500

Value is determined by price comparable from retail sale price and auction sale price of the same maker if available.

